

SIPORT - Entrance zones

Factory for door automation and security systems

More than just the word "safety"

Product features

Your advantages at a glance:

- custom-made manufacture using highest quality materials
- individual construction on the basis of local conditions
- Sophisticated sensors of the mechanism ensure maximum safety
- Extreme protection by ballistic and resistance classes of components
- highly technical specific security options depending on the customer 's wishes
- SIPORT combines its locks with its customers counters
- free choice of control elements
- long working life
- high value, quality drive systems
- battery operation in case of power failure
- quiet
- freedom of optical design via different material finishes
- powder-coated finish with a range of paints or anodising

Deployment location as customer and personnel lock

- hospitals and operating theatres
- customs
- airports
- civil servants and authorities
- reception halls
- chemical and industrial businesses
- jewellers

Deployment location as goods lock

- airports
- railway stations
- post offices
- ticket offices
- hospitals and operating theatres
- industrial businesses

